REFLECTION OF LIFE

Ozella Marinda Carolyn Thomas Stigall was born November 2, 1929, in Brinkley, Arkansas, to Jessie Thomas and Beatrice Thomas. She accepted Christ at a young age and was a member of Pilgrim Rest Baptist Church in College Station, Arkansas.

Mrs. Ozella had eleven children. Between her children and all the children they brought around, her house was never empty and her arms were never closed. If you came through the door, you were fed, you were looked after, and you knew where you stood.

Mrs. Ozella loved music, fishing, working in her garden, and sitting outside. She was a quiet woman and did not say a lot, but when she did, you listened. She was the kind of person who would tell you what you needed to hear, not what you wanted to hear, and she'd do it without raising her voice.

She was preceded in death by her husband, DC Stigall, and her children: DL Stigall, CL Stigall, Johnny Stigall, Shirley Williams, and Bertha Henley.

She leaves to cherish her memory her children: Nola Stigall, Ruthie Oliver, Bobby Stigall, Sr., Martha Stigall, Willie Stigall, and Seletha Stigall; stepdaughter Brenda Glover; and a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and great-great-grandchildren.

She lived ninety-six years and left behind more family than most people could count. Between her children, grandchildren, and generations beyond, there are people who carry something of her in them — whether they knew her well or only knew her name. She will forever be cherished in our hearts.

I'M FREE

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I've found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss —
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much —
Good friends, good times, my loved ones' touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and peace to thee —
God wanted me now; He set me free.

You Only Can Have One Mother

You only can have one mother, so patient, kind, and true;
No other friend in all the world will be the same to you.
When other friends forsake you, to mother you will return,
For all her loving kindness, she asks for nothing in return.
As I look upon your pictures, sweet memories I will recall
Of a face so full of sunshine and a smile for one and all.
Mother, you will always be in my heart and memories I will hold dearly.

— Your daughter, Martha Stigall
"You will forever be my sweet little Ladybug."
